

Teacher

Lim Ai Hooi

Teacher Ai Hooi is a distinguished member of Singapore's esteemed choral scene, serving as both a renowned conductor and educator.

In 1989, she earned her credentials from the esteemed Royal College of Music in London, specializing in Piano and Voice. Over the course of three decades, she has wholeheartedly devoted herself to guiding her school choirs to the pinnacle of success, securing top honors at prestigious international competitions.

Choral music, to her, embodies sincerity, love, and an unwavering pursuit of excellence. Through the shared passion for music, she aspires to impart her values and beliefs, inspiring her students to resonate deeply with every audience member they touch.