Cham Li Teng

Piano and Vocal Teacher

Teacher Li Teng, a passionate Piano, Vocal and Sing & Play teacher has been inspiring students with her love for music for the past few years. Li Teng's musical journey began at an early age. Her formal education in music includes a Bachelor (Hons) in Classical Music Education from the UCSI University, as well as music certifications from ABRSM.

Li Teng believes that music education should be accessible and enjoyable for everyone. Her teaching philosophy centers around creating a positive and encouraging learning environment. She uses a blend of classical techniques and contemporary styles to make lessons both fun and challenging, ensuring that her students not only learn to play and sing but also develop a deep appreciation for music.

Over the past few years, Li Teng has taught many students, ranging from young children to adults. For her, music is more than just a profession – it's a way of life. She finds immense joy in seeing her students grow and succeed. 'Music has the power to transform lives,' Li Teng says. 'It's incredibly fulfilling to be a part of that journey with my students.
