

Yu Chia-En

Piano Teacher

Mr Yu Chia-En is an experienced music educator and performer with over a decade of teaching and performance experience. With a strong foundation in piano and wind performance, he brings a broad and well-rounded understanding of music education.

He holds a Master's Degree in Music from Chinese Culture University and a Bachelor's Degree in Music from Shih Chien University. Having studied music from a young age under internationally renowned musicians, Chia-En has developed strong artistic insight and technical mastery.

As an educator, he has guided students across different levels to build solid foundations, develop technique, coordination, and musical understanding, while growing in confidence and expression through structured lessons. He is known for identifying each student's learning needs and providing clear, effective guidance that makes progress both engaging and purposeful.

Beyond teaching, Chia-En has performed at concert halls and festivals across Japan, China, and Taiwan. He has also served as a Music Director and Conductor for various ensembles, reflecting his versatility and dedication to music education and performance.

Through his work, he inspires students to develop not only musical skill, but also discipline, focus, and a lifelong appreciation for music.
