

Lucia Tan

Piano Teacher

Teacher Lucia is a dedicated music educator who is passionate about introducing young children to the joy of music. She believes that every child's musical journey should begin in a fun, nurturing, and encouraging environment where confidence, curiosity, and creativity can flourish.

She enjoys teaching Presto Explorers, beginner and junior piano students, and believes that every child learns differently. Through engaging and interactive lessons, Lucia aims to help students build strong musical foundations while developing confidence and a genuine love for music.

With her warm, patient, and encouraging teaching style, Lucia strives to create positive learning experiences where every child feels supported to grow at their own pace. She enjoys celebrating each student's progress and helping them discover the joy of making music.

Her goal is to inspire every student to enjoy learning, develop essential musical skills, and build confidence that extends beyond the music room.
