

Daren Tan

Vocal Teacher

Mr Daren Tan is a passionate music educator and versatile performer, specialising in singing for students of all ages and levels. As an experienced singer and songwriter with vast musical exposure, he is dedicated to helping every learner build strong vocal foundations while developing confidence, artistry, and a lifelong appreciation for music.

Throughout his extensive career, Daren has garnered significant professional stage experience, having served as the Musical Director of the British Club Music Section Band for eight years. He has also performed with the prestigious Singapore Armed Forces Music and Drama Company, participated actively in various musicals, and shared the stage alongside current stars such as JJ Lin.

Known for his ability to connect warmly with others, Daren brings an engaging and encouraging approach to his teaching. He tailors his vocal pedagogy to each individual's needs, drawing upon a wide repertoire of modern hits, evergreens, and classics across multiple languages, including English, Mandarin, Japanese, Korean, and Thai, to ensure students progress with confidence and expressive stylistic versatility.

Drawing from his professional background, Daren is committed to inspiring students to achieve their musical goals. He believes that great music is about creating unforgettable moments and memories, and he strives to foster perseverance, creativity, and a genuine love for singing that lasts a lifetime.
